

Paddle Wheel targeted in two bomb scares

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

The Paddle Wheel Motel, Restaurant and Bar has been evacuated twice this week by Clermont Harbor Volunteer Fire Department and Hancock County Sheriff's Department personnel following phone threats.

Criminal Investigator Matt Karl of the sheriff's department reported, "At 2 a.m. on February 12, a person called the Paddle Wheel Bar, laughed a little bit, then said that a bomb was in place at the Paddle Wheel and was to go off in an hour."

"When asked where the bomb was, the caller laughed and hung up."

The Clermont Harbor Volunteer Fire Department was called in and we notified people in both the buildings, going door-to-door.

"After we evaluated, we waited until the time (for the reported explosion) passed."

Karl described the next steps taken, saying after the time elapses, they go through the area looking for something unusual or out of place.

If possible, the owner or someone familiar with the area accompanies an agent in the search for easier recognition of the unusual."

"Forty-three hours later, p.m. on February 13, the Pa-Wheel Bar received another call."

Karl said, "It was the same thing. Someone saying I got a bomb in there, good luck, and hanging up."

He said nothing suspicious was found at the Paddle Wheel either time.

"When people go back to their rooms," interjected the investi-we tell them to call if they see something out of the ordinary."

He added some words of warning to the public, saying "Should you ever be where a bomb threat is made, don't turn the lights on or off. Don't start a car. Evacuate and contact your local sheriff's department."

Supervisors to redistrict

BY TRACI BONNEY

The County Board of Supervisors is preparing to draw the lines — district lines.

The board at its Friday meeting scheduled a 7 p.m. public meeting for Monday, March 11, to discuss changes in the county's five supervisor districts. The redistricting of the county is required by federal law to be executed after the census is completed every 10 years.

The board must submit its redistricting plan by May 1 in order to have the redistricting completed in time for state and county elections. However, board attorney Gerald Gex has asked the board to submit the plan earlier to allow for contingencies.

The supervisors intend to work with the Gulf Regional Planning Commission in formulating its redistricting plan.

The board also approved a contract for the purchase of two 100-square-foot lots in west Shoreline Park for the construction of a meeting hall and voting precinct, and passed a resolution requesting that the voting precinct be moved from its present site to the new site once the building is finished. The present voting precinct is subject to flooding during heavy rains.

At the request of county road superintendent Sam Cuevas, the board approved a bid from Coast Materials of $37 per yard for approximately four yards of concrete. Cuevas said the concrete will be used to cover wiring for lighting at the Washington Street Pier in places where the wiring cannot be placed below the parking lot at the pier.

The board moved to accept a low bid for a treatment plant at McLeod Water Park contingent on the verification of one bid whose amount came into question. The supervisors and Gex voiced their doubts that the bidder actually intended to submit a bid that is approximately one-fourth the amount of the other two bids, which were competitive with one another.

Tax Assessor/Collector Edward Murtagh Jr. requested that the board approve a one-year loan for the purchase of computer equipment that will allow the local tax office to interface with the state office and thus expedite car tag issuances and fund collections.

The board agreed with Murtagh's request.

Supervisor Robert Peterson mentioned the striping of Lower Bay Road, which is now complete. He said he is pleased the project has been finished.

Supervisor Wilmer Seymour brought up the subject of the sunken shrimp boat near the Washington Street Pier. He asked the board attorney if there had been any response to two registered letters sent to the boat's owners in California.

Legion blood drive to help Desert Shield

The American Legion will sponsor an American Red Cross Mobile Unit Blood Drawing at the Bay St. Louis Legion Home, on Wednesday, February 20 from 1 until 7 p.m.

According to Hancock County blood drive chairman John D. Rutherford Jr., the quota for the drawing is 200 units. The Red Cross has already sent several thousand units of blood in Operation Desert Shield, and seeks to maintain an ample supply.

"We know people are aware of the importance to the life and health of those in our community, and those who are serving in Saudi Arabia," said Rutherford.

"We are asking for assistance from the citizens who are physically able and 17 years of older to donate a unit of blood," he said.

Waveland highway spruce-up tops commissioner's agenda

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

Robert Haney has been busy as a bee spreading the seeds of beautification throughout the Waveland community these past two months and "Highway 90, from city limit to city limit" is his first priority.

Since the beginning of the year, the city has contributed equipment, and through the assistance of the Hancock County Sheriff's Department, has borrowed some prison trustees to help in the edging of all the curbs along Highway 90.

Little by little, the overgrowth and litter is vanishing.

Appointed in December by Mayor Stella Frilot, as chairman of the newly created Parks and Parkway Commission, Haney has formed an eight-member committee called "the Friends of the Parkway" with Bay-Waveland Garden Club member Nanette Murphree as chairman.

Haney said the committee is presently organizing plans for the most attractive placement of trees, shrubs and flower beds on the medians.

"We plan to take the crepe myrtle trees that are presently spread out," said Haney, "and place them in clusters and surround them with periwinkles."

Yesterday the mayor joined us in trimming the oleanders, and we will be planting more.

"We have received one generous donation, so far, which we will use to purchase live oak trees for the medium.

Haney intends to approach businesses and individuals along Highway 90 for donations and/or physical assistance.

"We want Highway 90 to have an attractive appearance, so that when visitors drives by, they are enticed to stop."

Haney reported on February 25 he and his people will meet with the Chamber of Commerce, along with Bay St. Louis' highway and agriculture department for spring plans.

He explained Waveland intends to join hands with Bay St. Louis, so that "there will be a unified appearance of beauty from Waveland corporate limits to the Bay Bridge."

As a future project Haney would like to see more emphasis placed on letting people driving along the highway know that there are beaches right here, for their enjoyment.

"Too many people drive through thinking there are no beaches until they cross the bridge," said Haney.

He said that he would like to see some way to let the visitors know as they drive through that they have already arrived at the Coast.

He said Ward 3 Alderman Curtis P. "Phil" Colson is helping to draw plans for a new sign to mark the entrance into Waveland.

"QUOTEABLE QUOTES"

By Ellis C. Cuevas

On Wednesday there will be a very important blood drive held at the American Legion Home in Bay St. Louis.

The American Red Cross drive will be from 1 to 7 p.m. at the post home located on Greenmeadow Road, across from Bay Senior High school.

The need for blood is severe at this time, especially with the events going on in the Middle East.

Most of you have read or heard about the number of units of blood the American Red Cross is supplying for our troops and I am hoping no more will be needed, but one never knows.

John Rutherford, Hancock County chairman, reports the big push is to collect 200 units of blood at this drive, which is double the number usually collected at a local drive.

If you can give blood, this will be a good time to give as you will be helping America's war effort.

Next Friday, February 22, the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce's monthly Morning Edition will be held at 7:30 a.m. at the Civic Center on Longfellow Road.

The scheduled speaker is Dr. Edward D. North Jr., founder of the National Exchange Club Foundation for the Prevention of Child Abuse.

This program should be of interest to all Hancock County residents as we are reported to have a very high rate of child abuse in this county.

I know there are many residents of the area who are concerned about child abuse and I am hoping they will attend this Morning Edition if possible.

Harold Cross contributes to military campaign

For Harold Cross, the war in the Persian Gulf has made his life a delicate balancing act, dividing his time between flying troops and munitions to the war zone as a citizen soldier and keeping up with his civilian job.

For the entire month of January, he was on voluntary active duty as Lt. Col. Harold Cross, of the 172nd Military Airlift Group of the Mississippi Air National Guard, piloting huge C141 military transport planes back and forth to Saudi Arabia and Turkey.

Last week he was back at his desk in his civilian job as executive director of the Mississippi Workers' Compensation Commission.

Come March 1, Cross plans another month-long tour of voluntary active duty with the Mississippi Air National Guard, taking on whatever missions are handed out to the 172nd by the Military Airlift Command of the U.S. Air Force.

By then, it may be Colonel Harold Cross instead of Lieutenant Colonel, since his promotion is pending before Congress. And in March, Cross will become commander of the 172nd Military Airlift Group.

Of the 1,184 men and women in the 172nd, over 200 have been called to active duty by the Air Force since Operation Desert Shield began last August. Another 30 flying crewmen who, like Cross, have not been mobilized have taken voluntary tours of active duty ranging from a few days to a month to take part in flying missions.

The involvement of the 172nd in the Persian Gulf crisis goes back to Aug. 6 when volunteers from the Mississippi air guard unit—Cross one of them—flew the first Desert Shield airlift mission to Saudi Arabia.

Since then, the 172nd has flown 960 missions, and hauled 11,200 military personnel and 15,000 tons of munitions and other cargo to the Persian Gulf area.

Besides that, the base of the 172nd at Thompson Field here has become an important staging point for the cavernous C141's to refuel, undergo maintenance and switch air crews for the massive military operation. Pit maintenance and crews to

What makes a great deal of difference psychologically to the soldiers involved in Operation Desert Storm, Cross added, is the outpouring of local community support that has been evident. "It's been truly remarkable," he said.

The Bay Rotary raised the money with a special fund raiser for the Toy Library Coast, in which special-designed toys are loaned to children with physical handicaps. The program started at USM Gulf Park for children from birth to age six by a Hasbro Foundation Grant for the three coastal counties. LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Problems in Waveland get immediate attention

Dear Editor:

As a relatively new resident in Waveland, I am still adjusting to the nice quiet country life and the way things are done around here.

Recently, on that Sunday night when the "great rains" came, I stood in the front door of my new house on Waveland Avenue and watched as the floods rose to the point where the water reached the front stoop. I worried and drank coffee till dawn, when I called the mayor. She advised me she was aware of the problem and had been out there at one a.m. pulling Christmas trees and garbage bags out of the ditches.

Unfortunately, she said, we do not have a master plan for clearing up the drainage and there is no standard set at which the individual culverts are to be installed. They were working on it.

When the pressure from the sewer system blew out the jelly gasket under my toilet, and I found myself standing in what I hope was water for the second time, I decided to investigate.

With no place for the water to go to get to the Gulf, if the culverts were all full and the sewer system was stymied, I took a walk—south.

In just two blocks, I found an open rapidly flowing stream, nowhere near full, flowing happily and rapidly on its way to the Gulf. In those two blocks, I also found four blocked areas of about 4 to 6 feet which prevented the water from my ditch reaching the larger drainage ditch.

I again called the mayor, and could only leave a message with the complaint and a possible solution. Clean out the ditch!

Five minutes later I got a call saying the problem would be corrected in an hour. Having also called Alderman Stan Weidman, I was pleased to see him also investigating, but even more pleased to see nine men opening up the ditch.

If this is the way the mayor intends to address and go after solving problems, big or small, she has my support and I say, "Go to it."

Sincerely,
Earl MacLeod

Cooperative efforts brought Calgon to Port Bienville

Dear Editor:

On Thursday, Feb. 7, Calgon Carbon Corporation broke ground for its $63 million Pearl River Plant located in Port Bienville Industrial Park. The plant will produce activated carbon, and will create 60 jobs.

The brief ceremony, which included comments by the Governor, state and local officials and Calgon management, represented the official start of a major project that actually began more than a year ago and has involved literally dozens of individuals. In fact, Thomas McEconomy, president and CEO of Calgon Carbon, said the excellent cooperation his company received in choosing the Port Bienville site "gave us the added assurance that we had made a good choice" in locating here.

There is no way to list all the people who worked so hard on this project. However, I would like to recognize the following for their valuable assistance in bringing such an outstanding company to Hancock County: the Board of Supervisors, the Port and Harbor Commissioners, Southern Mississippi Planning and Development District, Mississippi Power Company, Coast Electric Power Association, Chamber of Commerce, Hancock Bank, Mississippi Department of Economic and Community Development, Pearl River Community College, Department of Environmental Quality, CSX Railroad...

The selection of Hancock County by Calgon Carbon is already having a positive economic impact on this community, and the impact in taxes and wages will have a significant local effect when the plant goes into production later this year.

Hancock County residents will all share in the benefits from this newest addition to our industrial community, and they should know that locating this plant here would not have been possible without a continuing and cooperative effort in the public and private sector.

There is no way to list all the people who worked so hard on this project. However, I would like to recognize the following for their valuable assistance in bringing such an outstanding company to Hancock County: the Board of Supervisors, the Port and Harbor Commissioners, Southern Mississippi Planning and Development District, Mississippi Power Company, Coast Electric Power Association, Chamber of Commerce, Hancock Bank, Mississippi Department of Economic and Community Development, Pearl River Community College, Department of Environmental Quality, CSX Railroad...

SHOPPING UP A STORM

By Katy

Lenten specials draw our attention in our area supermarkets ranging from fresh catfish and salmon, oysters and shrimp and crabmeat, to the perennial cans of tuna fish and the dried beans of all sorts, all at good prices.

Let's not pass too quickly by the frozen seafood sections, or the cans of seafood on the shelves. With specials also on rice and pasta, as well as on fresh and canned vegetables just now, we should experience little difficulty in planning and serving tasty Lenten meals.

Whole fryers are an especially good value these days, as are chicken breasts and drumsticks, for example. Other good buys are Boston Butts and pork steaks, along with boneless beef chuck roasts and steaks. Carrots, cabbage and zucchini are good buys.

Here's a simpler than simple easy way to cook catfish or trout or such:

BROILED FISH WITH HERBS

Allow 6 to 8 ounces of fish fillets or steaks per person. Place in shallow baking dish or broiling pan or lay fillets on a sheet of aluminum foil. Pour a tablespoon of butter, melted, over each fillet, sprinkle a bit of garlic, thyme and sage, to your taste, and a couple of tablespoons of lemon juice over each, and broil (or bake, for that matter) at 400 degrees for 10 minutes (per inch of thickness).

To broil the fish in foil, fold up the sides of the foil to form a "pan." To bake in foil, form an envelope, loosely sealing all sides, and allow 5 minutes extra cooking time.

section. ***

There's so much more to canned tuna that the usual tuna-mayo salad or sandwich, or as a staple for the kids' lunch boxes, isn't there? I like to add tuna chunks or pieces to a green salad, along with onions cut into rings, and top with a creamy Italian style dressing. Try it!

That famed French favorite, "Coquilles St. Jacques"—scallops in a tasty wine sauce, baked in a shell dish—is also quite tasty when made with tuna fish, as I have often done. And a budget-helper as well! Here's:

FISH STEAKS EN PAPILLOTE

6 fish steaks, 1/2 lb. each, approximately

12 thick slices tomato

2 Tblsp. capers, drained

2 cloves garlic, slivered

2 Tblsp. fresh chopped parsley

2 Tblsp. olive oil

Pepper, salt to your taste

Place each steak on a large square of aluminum foil. Place two slices of tomato on each. Divide the capers, garlic, parsley and olive oil over the tomatoes. Season each portion with salt and pepper.

Bring the edges of the foil together and crimp to seal well. Place the packets on a baking sheet and bake 15 minutes. Serve immediately in foil wrappers. (Six servings)

(These two recipes are from the magazine's "Diet Dinners" and a couple of tables-pears. (good buys, also)

3/4 lb. carrots, say 3 or 4 medium-size

3/4 lb. zucchini, say 2 or 3 medium-size

2 Tblsp. oil or butter

Pepper, salt to your taste

1 Tblsp. fresh chopped parsley

Cut the carrots and zucchini into julienne, or matchstick strips, and cook (in separate pans) until tender, just two or three minutes for the zucchini and a couple of minutes more for the carrots. Drain. Heat the oil or butter in a large skillet, over medium heat, and add the vegetables, along with the salt and pepper. Heat until warmed through, and sprinkle parsley over before serving. (Four to six servings, depending upon how much you like zucchini and/or carrots.)

Combine half of the sauce

Bread Crumbs for topping

Pepper, cayenne, salt to your taste

Preheat oven to 400 degrees.

Saute onions in a bit of the butter until transparent, and remove. Brown mushrooms just a bit in remainder of the butter. Combine soup and wine and heat almost to boiling but not quite, seasoning to your taste as you go.

Combine half of the sauce

Egg cooking contest is for desserts only

Plans are underway for the 1991 Mississippi Egg Cooking Contest. This year the rules have been changed. All entries must be in the dessert category.

Any dessert recipe containing a minimum of 4 eggs and at least 1/2 egg per serving will be accepted. The eggs may be used in any form (cake, pie, custard, omelet, meringue, etc.)

Recipes will be judged on creativity, ease of preparation, taste and appearance. Five finalists will be selected and notified by the end of April to compete in the May cook-off for the $300 top prize.

To enter, just mail your delicious egg dessert recipe to: Egg Contest, P.O. Box 1609, Jackson, MS 39215 by April 15. Include your name, address and phone number.

Food professionals and national first place egg contest winners are not eligible.

Seminar offers tips on growing herbs

Parsley, sage, rosemary and thyme...the words and haunting melody of the once popular tune by Simon and Garfunkel vividly bring to mind the romance and nostalgia of a bygone era. Though ancient, herbs are very contemporary culinary ingredients.

The addition of fresh herbs to season our food is much more healthful, tasty and trendy than using high calorie fat. The best way to get really fresh herbs is to grow your own. To get you started, a program on growing herbs will be presented by John Davis, area horticulturist, Wednesday, Feb. 27 10:45 a.m.

The one-hour class will be at the Mississippi Power Company meeting room, Hwy. 90 in Bay St. Louis.

Sources of plant varieties that grow well in this area will be discussed, as well as soil preparation, planting techniques, fertilization, pest control, harvesting and storage. A follow-up program on cooking with fresh herbs will be taught in May.

This program is free and open to any interested individual. To register, call 467-5456.

Bay, St. Stanislaus oyster reefs open

Bay St. Louis and St. Stanislaus public oyster reefs opened for harvest Saturday, Feb. 16 at 7 a.m., Bureau of Marine Resources Officials said.

All oyster reefs in Mississippi have been closed for harvest because of heavy rainfall in December and January.

BMR biologist Beverly Allen said bacteria counts in the Western Mississippi Sound had dropped to an acceptable level to allow the two reefs to open.

All other reefs remained closed.

In terms of growth, the three mergers finalized in 1990 are certainly of major consequence.

More Strength...

During 1990 when many financial institution's deposits were shrinking and earnings were "flat" or worse, Hancock Holding Company deposits grew by 43%. And, earnings per share increased.

Of equal interest, VERIBANC, Inc., an independent survey and rating firm in Massachusetts, twice listed Hancock Bank among the TOP FIFTY (50) SAFEST LARGE BANKS in the United States.

More Resources...

In terms of growth, the three mergers finalized in 1990 are certainly of major consequence.

The first occurred on June 4th, with the purchase of the $100,000,000 Metropolitan National Bank which greatly improved our ability to serve customers in the Biloxi, D'Iberville and Ocean Springs area.

On June 15th, our position in Pearl River County was further strengthened with the acquisition of the Poplarville Branch of The Unifirst Bank for Savings resulting in an additional $7,500,000 in deposits.

The bank's first out-of-state venture occurred on August 2nd, in a "clean bank" purchase of the $350,000,000 American Bank and Trust Company of Baton Rouge, Louisiana from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

The favorable terms of the transaction enabled us to "pick and choose" many of the assets owned by the American Bank. We were able to select acceptable liabilities and adjust rates of interest that were "above the market".

Of all the mergers during the past twenty years, this one by far, has the most favorable opportunities to effect significant "economies of scale", foremost in occupancy expense and data processing. This move also provided us with immediate access to an out-of-state market that is poised for growth.

We were also pleased that we experienced no significant customer loss during any of the mergers.

More Potential...

The fact that we were able to grow and remain strong under the prevailing conditions is due to the support of nearly 150,000 loyal customers and the untiring efforts of our staff and board members. It was your faith and trust that made 1990 a success and we thank you.

Finally, we look forward to 1991 with optimism and enthusiasm remembering that problems are only opportunities in disguise. At the same time, we pledge to you that we will continue to steer a conservative course as we have done for the past 91 years.

REFLECTIONS ON LIFE

By Father Jerome
LeDoux, SVD

Our knowledge is flat-footed

As long as we can remember, even the oldest of us, flat feet were considered one of the worst disabilities for becoming a member of the armed forces.

Womack named pastor at Diamondhead Baptist

Members of the Diamondhead Baptist Church welcomed Dr. Fred G. Womack as their new pastor on Feb. 3.

A graduate of Magee High School, Mississippi College and the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary of Louisville, Ky., Dr. Womack served the Wildwood Baptist Church of Clinton, Miss. for 15 years before arriving at Diamondhead.

The new minister is married to the former Judy Ann Hinkle of Yazoo City, Miss. They have three children, Kathy, 17; Leiane, 17, and Eric, 13.

DR. FRED G. WOMACK

Evangelists visit at Coast Episcopal

Chuck and Anne Murphy of St. Bartholomew's Church in Nashville, Tenn. will speak on "The Ministering Body" February 17 and 18 at Christ Episcopal Church.

The Sunday, Feb. 17 mission and sing-a-long will be from 7-9 p.m. with a covered dish supper served prior to mission at 6 p.m.

The Monday, Feb. 18 mission and Holy Communion will be from 7-9:30 p.m.

Grief therapy for teens, children seminar slated

Monday, Feb. 25 from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m., a special program entitled "Helping Children and Adolescents Cope With Grief" will be offered at the Royal d'Iberville Hotel, 1980 Beach Boulevard, Biloxi. Riemann Funeral Home will sponsor the seminar.

Dr. Alan Wolfelt, clinical thanatologist of national reputation, will be the presenter. Dr. Wolfelt is director of the Center of Loss and Life Transition in Colorado and is the author of a number of publications, including the books Helping Children Cope With Grief and Death and Grief: A Guide for Clergy.

A major focus of the program will be to help participants better understand the experience of grief and how to be of help to themselves and others.

The program is open to the public, and pre-registration is encouraged. For information and to obtain pre-registration materials, call Pat Harvill at 467-4242.

A special breakfast program for clergy will be sponsored at the Royal d'Iberville from 7:30 to 11:30 a.m. on Tuesday, Feb. 26.

For reservations or information, call 467-4242.

PRC night classes offered at Stennis

Registration for Pearl River Community College night classes at Stennis Space Center will be Tuesday, Feb. 19 from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m. in Building 1103 at the Stennis Space Center.

Classes at the Stennis Space Center begin the week of Feb. 25. Classes meet from 4:30 p.m.

until 8:30 p.m. Pearl River College classes offered include ART 1113 Art Appreciation, T; BAD 2413 Business Law, T; MFL 1113 Elem. French I, M; MFL 1213 Elem. Spanish, W; MAT 1313 College Algebra, W; MAT 1613 Calculus I, W; and MUS 1113 Music Appreciation, M.

Presidents featured at Story Hour

"Presidents" will be the theme for this week's children's Story Hour at the City-County Public Library, Hwy. 90 in Bay St. Louis.

George Washington and the First Balloon Flight and George Washington's Breakfast are books to be featured Wednesday, Feb. 20 at 10:30 a.m. at the City-County Public Library.

Children will receive a Presidents silhouette color sheet and see the film "The Berenstain Bears and the Truth."

"Dogs" is the theme at the Waveland Library Friday, Feb. 22 at 10:30 a.m.

Who Wants Arthur? and I Want A Dog are books to be read, and children will play games and make a little dog cup puppet.

There will also be finger plays and flannel board stories. Children may bring pictures of their dogs for show and tell.

Program and activities are designed for pre-school age children three to five years old who are not part of a nursery or pre-school group. Programs last approximately one hour, depending upon subject matter and planned activity.

Further information is available by calling Sandra Ladner at the City-County Library at 467-5282, or Karen Peoples at the Waveland Library at 467-9240.

Health Dept. remains closed through Friday

The Hancock County Health Department will be closed for all services Monday, February 18 through Friday, February 22.

No water samples will be accepted during this time. The office will reopen Monday, February 25 at 8 a.m. in their new location in the county office complex on Longfellow Road.

all of us who experienced it, this policy was part of the wisdom of the ages.

Lo and behold, just as the year 1990 was beginning to wind down, military sources shocked the world by announcing that flat feet were no longer a disability for military service.

In fact, after all these years, military scientists had discovered that flat feet were an asset, not a liability, because flat-footed recruits sustain fewer training accidents.

That announcement sent seismic waves through the very foundations of our beliefs and "knowledge." If the "facts" about flatfoot disability are not true—and never were—what is true? Is nothing sacred anymore?

As if that had not shaken us enough, doctors and researchers stayed their course of basic research and live tests until they came up with the startling finding that decaffeinated coffee is not less bad for us.

Under strict testing conditions, they tell us, those drinking the full-strength regular coffee came away with fewer problems and side effects than those drinking the decaf.

But we "knew" that extra caffeine in regular coffee wreaks more havoc on our whole system than the lesser dose in decaffeinated coffee. Didn't we? At most, we objected that the chemicals used in decaffeinating coffee probably do more damage than the caffeine itself. But what about naturally decaffeinated coffee?

This latest discovery has once more caught us flat-footed and leaning the wrong way.

Once again, the foundations of what we considered our "knowledge" have been blown away. The magnitude of our shock and confusion must rival that of our medieval ancestors who followed their forebears in the belief that the universe gravitated around the earth, until Copernicus blew them away.

Our body of knowledge remains suspect in every field until the evolution of study, analysis and synthesis irons out the wrinkles of falsehood, prejudice, inaccurate information, faulty conclusions and erroneous applications. Even then, our so-called certitude of knowledge is often a bit shaky at best.

What it boils down to is that we know extremely few things, although we live under the illusion that we know quite a number of things.

The plain fact is that we live by faith, not by knowledge, for most of what we "know" is only a series of beliefs brought on by the testimony and records of others, not to mention their mere beliefs and opinions.

After all, since we were not there, how do we know that Napoleon met his Waterloo? We can and do, of course, believe that he did, because there is sufficient documentary evidence to that effect—evidence which we "believe" we are "sure" has not been falsified, because "people" have checked it out scientifically.

This is a recurrent discussion which surfaces under sundry conditions and events, and which is always fascinating in that it challenges the cocksure arrogance of a complacent world. Just in case we may tend to forget it, God has ways of reminding us that we never have it made for sure down here on Planet Earth.

To be sure—sure beyond knowledge—without the reassurance of the unchanging Word of God, each of us is a Flatfoot Floogie.

Morning Stiffness: Arthritis Warning Sign #1

If your morning stiffness with stiffness in the joints that lasts more than ten minutes, you may have a form of arthritis that needs treatment. And the earlier you seek treatment, the better the chances are that the arthritis can be arrested... before it does permanent damage.

There are literally dozens of different types of arthritis, many of which may start off with morning stiffness. In point of fact however, different types of arthritis may lead to different kinds of stiffness, some more disabling than others.

The best way to determine which type of arthritis you have is to see a rheumatologist. A specialist in the diagnosis and treatment of these diseases. After graduation from medical school, the next step is to complete a three-year training program that leads to a fellowship in one of those areas. One such fellowship is in Rheumatology.

Sedrish, is board-certified in both Medicine and Pediatrics. Once that period of training is successfully completed, the rheumatologist begins an additional two to four year training program (called a "fellowship") in rheumatology, concentrating on the diagnosis and treatment of only the conditions known as arthritis and connective tissue diseases.

The end result of all these years of training is the ability to recognize what kind of arthritis the patient has, the understanding of which will allow the rheumatologist to choose the best treatment and the knowledge of which treatments are most successful in that particular disease.

Once an accurate diagnosis is made, treatment can be begun and often continued by the regular family doctor. Then, working as a team, the Rheumatologist and your family physician or family practitioner can keep you out of pain and back to work.

BAYS Saturday soccer sizzles

Under-8 and Under-10 Bay Area Youth Soccer games were hot in January and February. In Under-8 action, the Rotary Firecrackers exploded January 26 against the Alcan Pelicans but fizzled February 2 against the Hancock Bank Eagles, while the Hancock County Lawmen's Association Fireballs edged the Monti Electric Hammers the same day and the Pelicans scored their first win against the Carter Urology Hummingbirds.

On January 26, The Firecrackers smoked the Pelicans 4-0. Although the Pelicans defense was superb, their offense was slack.

Outstanding players for the Pelicans were John White on defense and Clive Wason on offense. The Firecrackers' standouts were Brandon Strong, who scored twice in the first quarter, and Wesley Debenport, who netted second and third quarter goals to secure the victory.

In February 2 action, The Firecrackers lost their spark as the Eagles defeated the Rotary team 4-0. Contributing two goals was Jarrod Marquar, while Lisa Mestayer and Alvin Kingston netting one each. Outstanding defense for the Firecrackers went to Jimmy Villereal and Marshall Black.

The same day, the Fireballs shot one goal past the Hammers in a very close competition to grab a win. Although most of the players in the Hammers' lineup were ill, they played the match. Hammers' standouts included Zachary Cooper and Chase Sackett on offense, and Jonathan Riesch, Lisa Halferty, Jacob Pierce and Michelle Kennedy on defense. Outstanding players for the Fireballs include Neil Favre, who scored the winning goal and made a save; Elizabeth Uram and Joe Dedeaux, who each made one save.

A third game of the day gave the Pelicans their first win, with a 3-0 score over the Hummingbirds. Terry Dorsey, John White and Drew Cranford were commended as outstanding defense players for the Pelicans.

In Under-10 action February 2, the Tornadoes won 4-0 against the Eagles.

Matthew Mannix scored the first goal of the day in the first quarter for the Tornadoes, followed by Jason Rieben in the second quarter. Fourth quarter goals by Jay Saucier and Rieben capped the win. Solid defense was provided by Matthew Power, Ashley Foster, Isaac Breeland and Zack Butterworth. Goalkeepers Saucier and Mannix made several saves, while T.J. Burleson, Ronnie Vanney and Mannix put front line pressure on the Eagles' goalkeeper.

Monti Electric Hammers

Boating skills, seamanship classes offered by Flotilla 33

The Bay-Waveland Flotilla No. 33 of the United States Coast Guard Auxiliary plans a public education class on "Boating Skills and Seamanship."

For seven nights starting at 7 p.m. March 4, class will be each Monday through April 15. These classes will be taught at the Diamondhead Community Center.

Thirteen major subjects will be covered. The Safe Way to Boating Enjoyment, Boating Language and Trailering, Boat Handling, Legal Requirements, Rules of the Road and Aids to Navigation.

Also, Piloting, Marine Machines, Marlinspike Seamanship, Sailing, Weather, Radio Telephone and Locks and Dams.

Completion of the course makes it possible for all to better enjoy their boating experiences and to do this in a safe manner.

Since the course and text book are strictly in accordance with Coast Guard practices, completion can be the first step toward application for membership in the Coast Guard Auxiliary.

For additional information, contact Barney Shields at 467-4373.

Accounting student competes in MSU rodeo

When the Mississippi State University rodeo team rides into Carthage for the first Mississippi State University Bulldog Stampede Intercollegiate Rodeo, Kinta Ladner will be riding and roping with the rest of the members.

Ladner, the daughter of Milton and Sharon Ladner of Bay St. Louis, is a freshman accounting major at MSU. This is her first year to participate in rodeo events with the MSU team. She competes in goat tying and barrel racing, which she has been doing for many years. She wants to work for a major accounting firm and continue competing in rodeos after graduation.

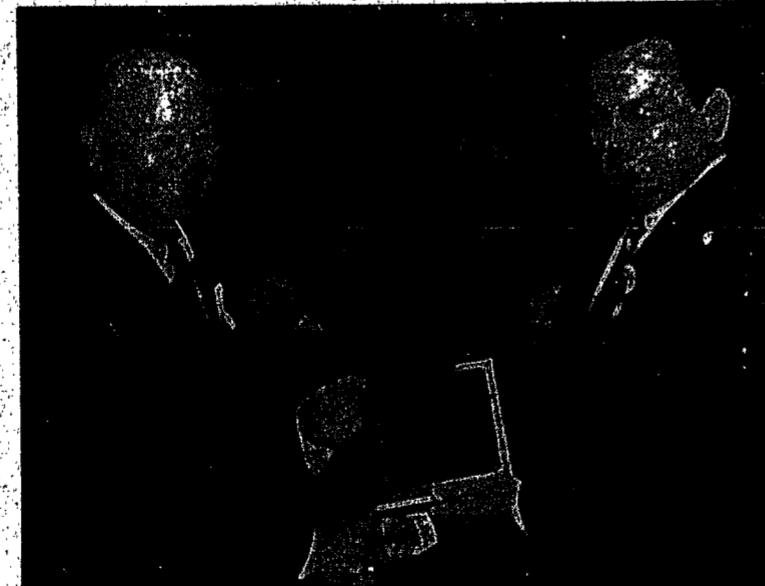

The rodeo, co-hosted by the MSU rodeo team and the Square County Jaycees, will be held February 28, March 1 and 2 at the Carthage Coliseum on Hwy. 16 East at 7:30 nightly.

Advance tickets are available at $3 for adults and $2 for college students with proper identification. They may be purchased by calling Janey or Kathy at 267-7685.

Tickets at the door will be $4 for adults and $2.50 for college students with i.d.

Ladner honored for basketball contributions

Coach J. Larry Ladner, Coach M. K. Turk

Coach J. Larry Ladner, the legendary basketball coach at Picayune Memorial High School and a Kiln native, was recognized during pre-game ceremonies of the Jan. 26 basketball game between Cincinnati and the University of Southern Mississippi for his contributions to the game of basketball in the state of Mississippi.

Ladner, the basketball specialist in the Department of Coaching and Sports Administration, announced his retirement effective at the end of the current semester. He received a plaque from Southern Mississippi head coach M. K. Turk before a crowd of nearly 8,000 fans.

"I felt very appreciative for having received this type of recognition," said Ladner. It is a very humbling experience to stand at midcourt in the presence of 8,000 people and receive recognition of this type."

Ladner has taught at USM since 1971.

Hancock Bank hosts economic symposium

Hancock Bank will hold its 25th Annual Economic Symposium Tuesday, Feb. 19, at the Mississippi Coast Coliseum Convention Center in Biloxi. The symposium will begin at 8 a.m. with coffee and pastries. The program will run from 9 to 11:45 a.m.

Four guest speakers will be featured. These men were selected for their knowledge and commitment to the development of commerce, education and industry in south Mississippi and beyond. The speakers and their topics are: Jesse L. White Jr., Ph.D., public policy consultant and former executive director of the Southern Growth Policies Board, "Future Challenges to the Southern Economy"; Hank Renken, president and chief officer of Ter Chemicals, "Ter Chemicals - A Mississippi Concept"; Aubrey K. Lucas, Ph.D., president of the University of Southern Mississippi, "Higher Education and Economic Development"; and Espy P. Price, vice president and general manager of the Gulf of Mexico Production Business Unit at Chevron U.S.A. Inc., "Opportunity for the '90s - Norphlet Trend."

Hancock Bank has provided symposiums since 1966 as a means of informing the community of the status of business and industry in south Mississippi.

GE Plastics continues expansion, defers hiring

GE Plastics in the Port Bienville Industrial Park has announced it is continuing with its $50-million plant expansion currently underway.

According to Human resources manager Randy Read, the expansion will add two new production lines and double the plant's capacity to make SAN resin.

"We've been involved in a lengthy new employee selection process to fill operating technician positions for this expanded facility," Read said.

"However, due to a softening global market for the materials business and the overall decline in the economy, we believe it would be unfair to both existing employees and new employees to continue the process at this time. Thus, we are deferring any additional hiring until a more favorable economy is in sight."

GE Plastics officials point out there has never been a layoff since the plant was first built more than 10 years ago.

"It is not our policy to hire today and lay off tomorrow," said Read. "We plan to be here in Hancock County for many years and want our employees to know when they come on board that we're offering careers, not just jobs."

With the cooperation of Pearl River Community College's Hancock Vo-Tech Center, several hundred applicants have been involved in testing and interviews.

"When the economy shows more positive indications for our business, we expect to renew our hiring process and we are hopeful these candidates will continue to show their interest in joining our team."

GE Plastics currently employs more than 75 area residents at its Pearlington facility.

Is your best tax savings one you have overlooked?

By Janet K. Lukens
Area Consumer Management Specialist

One of the best sources of tax savings is all too often overlooked. Perhaps many middle income individuals don't believe there are still tax-saving strategies available to them.

Perhaps we just don't associate our employers with helping us to save on our tax bill.

Employee-benefit packages are often an excellent place for finding tax saving tactics. By taking advantage of benefits offered to you, you can cut the tax bill and reach some important financial goals.

Tax-deferred retirement plans often allow employee contributions which are deducted from taxable income. This one benefit alone could take thousands of dollars off taxable income per year.

Reimbursement accounts or flexible spending accounts often offered as part of so-called "cafeteria" benefit packages, allow money to be set aside before taxes for medical and dependent care expenses.

The 401(k) plan can be one of the best ways available to save for retirement. Money contribbuted to the plans by the employee reduces taxable income dollar for dollar.

In addition, many employers match a percentage of the employee contribution up to 6 percent of the employee's salary. Employees are allowed to contribute about 10 percent of their income up to a maximum of $7,979.

Dollars contributed by both investing in the stock market.

Historically, stocks have outperformed other investments. Employees nearing retirement need to begin moving all investments to fixed income alternatives.

All investors need to remember the importance of diversifying in order to reduce risk. In employee plans, this may mean choosing more than just the company stock plan for your investment portfolio.

In choosing the amount you will contribute to retirement accounts, remember that these accounts are not designed for short-term savings.

Money put into these accounts should be for retirement. Other savings mechanisms should be used for emergency savings, college tuition needs, or automobile replacement.

Flexible spending accounts are a smart way to put aside money for unreimbursed medical expenses and dependent care costs. Money set aside in these accounts is exempt from federal income tax, Social Security tax and the 1.45 percent Medicare tax, and state taxes in all but two states.

Limits for the accounts are about $2,900 for unreimbursed medical expenses and $5,000 for dependent care.

Medical expenses eligible for the reimbursement accounts are eye care and any unreimbursed medical or dental expense. Dependent care accounts are used for cost of preschool, daycare, after-school care for children to age 12, day camp and elder care.

With flexible spending accounts, be sure to spend the money in the account. If you fail to use the funds set aside, you will lose them.

employee and employers grow tax-deferred until the money is withdrawn during retirement years. Some profit-sharing plans also allow employee contributions in pretax dollars.

Plans such as the 401(k) usually offer a variety of investment alternatives. If you are young and have many years to retirement, the usual recommendation is to focus your

Cross-country trek

Foursome traverses U.S. on two tandem bicycles

Special to the Echo
By T.H. "Doc" Toups
Bay St. Louis was visited Wednesday by four intrepid bicyclists on a cross-country odyssey, which started in San Diego, Calif. on Thanksgiving Day and is expected to end in St. Augustine, Fla.

The cyclists, husband and wife teams Tim and Annette Lum and Nancy and Kent Upton, are natives of Hillsboro, Ore. Nancy and Annette are sisters, and the quartet's choice of vehicles is somewhat unusual—they are riding tandem bikes, which require close cooperation between riders.

Though their trip is secular in nature, three of the riders are Presbyterians, and they have maintained contact with congregations across the country.

Upon arrival in Bay St. Louis Wednesday night, they were surprised with a pot luck dinner, sponsored by the congregation of First Presbyterian Church on Ulman Avenue and hosted by its pastor, the Reverend Richard Jones.

After dinner, the riders shared anecdotes and photographs of their trip with those present.

Kent Upton described mishaps which included 15 flat tires, numerous drenchings and unexpected downpours and mechanical failures with the heavily laden machines.

Each bike, with riders and gear, weighs more than 400 pounds.

Annette, who was inspired to plan the trip after reading the book "Walk Across America," claimed to be the target of good-natured needling after each new misadventure.

The bicyclists explained they had undertaken the trip to see the country "up close" and to increase public awareness of bicycling as a healthy and ecologically sound method of traveling.

All claimed to be surprised by the spontaneous hospitality they have enjoyed during the trip and said that despite their initial reservations and the warnings of friends, they had experience no untoward incidents while traveling.

When pressed as to their favorite spot enroute, they unanimously agreed that it was New Orleans, but confessed that their arrival during Mardi Gras may have colored their view!

The quartet plan to leave Bay St. Louis on Thursday and hope to arrive in St. Augustine at the end of February, where they are scheduled to meet Annette and Nancy's vacationing parents.

At St. Augustine, Nancy

explained, they intend to hoist their bikes aboard her parents' motor home and enjoy a less strenuous trip back to Oregon.

Friendship Oak DAR

Friendship Oak Chapter met at the Ramada Inn, Long Beach on Saturday, Feb. 9, hosted by Mrs. W. N. Bogan Jr.

Mrs. William J. Gummel, regent, presided. The meeting was opened with a moment of silent prayer for those involved in Desert Storm, followed by the Pledge of Allegiance and American's Creed.

Mrs. James B. Brumfield introduced guest speaker Charles H. Gray, historian of the Hancock County Historical Society. Gray spoke on the history of the Gulf Coast. The subject was most interesting and enjoyed by those present.

Mrs. Robert C. Willems has been approved as the organizing president to form a chapter of the National Society Children of the American Revolution. Friendship Oak is the sponsor.

Anne Anderson of the L. W. Anderson Library in Gulfport is now a member of Friendship Oak Chapter.

Delegates from the chapter will attend the 85th Mississippi State Conference, DAR at the Coliseum Ramada Inn in Jackson Feb. 21-23.

The next meeting is Wednesday, March 13 at the Ramada Inn, Long Beach.

Pass Christian Garden Club

The Pass Christian Garden Club met Thursday, Feb. 7. John Wesley Jones Jr., a member of Pass Christian's Tree Board and a licensed landscape gardener and tree surgeon, was guest speaker.

Hostesses were Mrs. James Cerra and Mrs. J. A. Hodges.

Horticulture chairman Mrs. J. W. Hedgpeth, displayed a variety of camellias. She told members to start gardening, rose pruning, and planning for the flower show March 21. A plant swap, with contributor comments, is planned for the March 7 meeting.

The Pass Christian Garden Club scrapbook, prepared by Mrs. John G. Drevar, won first prize in its category.

The Arbor Day Program, Feb. 8, began with planting of trees at Pass Christian Middle School and was followed by the Tree City tour of trees. Three chairman Mrs. Robert Doe organized the event.

Wildflower garden chairmen Mrs. Kay Chapman and Mrs. Lelia Cassidy discussed work at the Wildflower Garden and the contribution of an Eagle Badge recipient, as well as the elated response of school children who toured the garden.

Pilgrimage chairmen Mrs. Virgil Giani and Mrs. Robert Campbell, announced plans for the 44th annual Spring Pilgrimage, beginning April 1.

Diamondhead Business and Professional Association

Thanks were extended to C. R. "Jerry" Sayre, his officers and directors for their accomplishments toward a healthy, growing organization, and to the nominating committee, Dr. Skip Matheson, Lou Lamendola and Russell Love.

Newly elected officers are Eddie Fernandez, president; Ray Bane, vice-president; Mary Emry, treasurer; Mary Cassis, secretary; and Kathy Bradford, Nell Frisbie, Clarice Gustin, Bill Johnson and Steve Planchard, directors.

Goals for the year will be to sustain the programs in place: Multi-lane entrance (Aloha Drive); coordinating landscape and signs in business section; and burial of Coast Electric cables.

Standing with the Diamondhead Civic Council, members have succeeded in:

- ZIP code (1991) and Post Office (1993)
- Being identified on Mississippi State Highway map (1991)
- Association's identity in South Central Bell's white pages (1991)

- Reciprocal working with the Hancock Chamber
- Communications with Hancock Board of Supervisors and
- Cooperation with Fitness Trail Project.

Membership meetings are usually held at Diamondhead Quality Inn on the fourth Thursday of each month at 8 a.m., serving continental breakfast.

New members are invited to attend.

Mississippi Coast Crime Commission

The Board of Directors of the Mississippi Coast Crime Commission will meet on Thursday, Feb. 21, 4 p.m., at Merchants Bank & Trust, employees' meeting room, second floor, 1330 25th Avenue in Gulfport.

State Senator Victor J. Franckiewicz Jr. will be guest speaker. He will speak on the aspects of gambling and the Gaming Commission, followed by a question and answer session. The mayors and sheriffs in Hancock, Harrison and Jackson counties have been invited to attend.

All board members are urged to participate.

Twentieth Star Chapter NS DAR

By Joe Williams Pilet, Scribe
"A penny saved is a penny made," observed wise old Benjamin Franklin who had only two years of schooling and flunked his math test. Let's take it from there:

Franklin retired at 40 years of age, because, according to his biographer, R. Conrad Stein, he had all the money he would ever need and he was anxious to get on with scientific discoveries and inventions.

In early years, a penny must have been a valuable thing as Ben Franklin was the 15th of the 17 children fathered by Josiah Franklin.

An increase in the cost of mail service would likely have been quite a challenge to Ben Franklin. Probably he would have made pennies by carefully watching the weight of all things requiring postal service. Why not use lighter-weight paper? What about single spacing rather than double? How about trimming margins to cut down on weight?

Be of good cheer! Remember, sending it through the mail is cheaper than going there!

Hancock Women's Club

The Hancock Women's Club held its annual meeting, with election of new officers, at the home of Julia Loup in Waveland Thursday, Feb. 14, with president Lois Cripple presiding.

One guest, Amelia Terrebonne, was present.

The following officers were elected: President, Lois Cripple; vice-president, Margaret Mirandy; secretary, Lee Ann Sauls; treasurer, Marion Quinlan.

Additional board members were appointed by the president to chair the following committees: Ways and means, Cathleen Taconi; hospitality, Gwen Schilling; Sunshine, Loraine Townsend; telephone, Marion Kilbride; publicity, Shirley Jones.

As approved at the January meeting, the club donated $200 each to the Salvation Army and St. Vincent de Paul, the latter specifically for purchase of prescription drugs for needy persons.

Fun and Games Day will be Wednesday, Feb. 27 at 11:30 a.m. at the home of Loraine Townsend, 434 Pecan Park Drive in Bay St. Louis.

This will start with a covered dish luncheon. Each member is asked to bring something that will serve five or six people. Card or board games will follow, but those not wishing to play are urged to stay and socialize.

Cripple has invited both old and new board members to attend the next board meeting at 10 a.m. Monday, March 4 at the Bay St. Louis library.

The installation of new officers will occur at the luncheon meeting Thursday, May 14 at Rooster's Restaurant, Hwy. 603, Kiln, with Ann Whitworth serving as installing officer.

The door prize was won by Georgia Williams.

After the meeting was adjourned, a cold lunch, provided by board members, was served.

American Legion Auxiliary Unit 139

The monthly meeting of the Clement R. Bontemps American Legion Auxiliary Unit 139 was Monday, Feb. 11.

The meeting was opened by president Janet Aime; color-bearers Roslyn Weathers and Jackie Bufkin advanced the colors, chaplain Ursula Favre read the prayers; and the membership recited the Pledge of Allegiance followed by the Preamble.

The membership was asked to participate in a moment of silent prayer for "our boys and girls" who are in the Middle East.

Secretary Jeannette Ladner called the roll of officers, followed by the minutes of the previous meeting. Treasurer Bobbie Tomlinson reported on the financial status of the units.

Aime introduced new member Pat Garcia, who was given a warm welcome.

The president then called on the various committees to give their reports.

Membership: Judy Gavney said the auxiliary has a short way to reach its goal;

Emergency: Oris Planchard thanked members for bringing cans for recycling. She mentioned how well the fund is progressing.

Chaplain: Ursula Favre reported on ailing members. Americanism chairman Susan Piazza reported on the spirit of the community and cooperation of various groups in helping the families of servicemen and women.

Pass Christian VFW Post 5931

The Veterans of Foreign Wars, Cecil R. Ruddock Post 5931, Pass Christian, was host to the First District Veterans of Foreign Wars quarterly meeting Sunday, Feb. 3.

Throughout southern Mississippi there are 18 posts represented in the First District. Charles "Chuck" Heyd is commander of the First District, and Lois Hill is president of the Ladies Auxiliary.

At a joint session Post 5931 was honored to have State VFW Commander Billy Ray White address the group, encouraging current members to solicit new members and to solicit re-instatement of past members.

Sen. Vic Franckiewicz spoke of the gaming bills to be voted on. He also covered the bills now pending on bingo as they apply to non-profit and veterans organizations.

At the conclusion of the business meeting, all members were invited to participate in a parade covering a four-block area, ending in front of the gazebo at War Memorial Park, where a prayer was offered for our forces in the Gulf. Also, the entire group recited the Pledge of Allegiance.

After the parade, all members were served a luncheon of baked ham, turkey and dressing, potato casserole, mixed vegetables and dessert.

White stated the meeting was the largest district meeting he had attended. It is estimated 275 to 300 members were in attendance.

UNCLE VANYA

Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio stars as a beautiful woman who has a disastrous effect on the lives of all around her in David Mamet's adaptation of Anton Chekhov's "Uncle Vanya," on "Great Performances" Friday, Feb. 22, at 9 p.m. on Mississippi ETV.

David Warner is the hapless Vanya and Ian Holm his disillusioned friend, Dr. Astrov, in the stellar Anglo-American production, which also features Rebecca Pidgeon, Ian Bannen and Rachael Kempson.

Pulitzer Prize-winner Mamet brings a contemporary American, but completely faithful perspective to Chekhov's portrait of Russia's declining middle class at the turn of the century.

"Uncle Vanya" is the story of a visit from a retired professor and his dazzling young wife, Yelena, to the professor's country estate. Middle-aged Vanya, who runs the estate with his niece, Sofya, develops an overwhelming passion for the professor's wife, as does his friend, the local doctor.

encourage children and their parents to visit and use public library resources during the school year.

The Garfield Reading Club is open to children, pre-school and school age. Children who have not yet learned to read may participate by having a parent read to them.

The program will run through March 30, and those participating will receive Garfield bookmarks, reading records, weekly Garfield games and fun quizzes.

All children need do is visit the library of their choice at least five times before March 30 and check out books on their reading level.

Then they should have their visitor's log stamped with a paw print. A certificate will be awarded on March 30 to those who complete five visits to the library.

Further information is available by calling the City-County Public Library at 467-5282, the Kiln Library at 255-1724 or the Waveland Library at 467-9240.

Stennis employees earn college credits on site

Hundreds of employees at NASA's John C. Stennis Space Center are advancing their college educations without ever having to leave work.

Through Stennis' Center for Higher Education, employees are earning degrees from three universities and a community college located at the space center.

Classes start after work hours and are usually over by 8 p.m. The center helps employees stay up-to-date in their careers and improve their job skills. Degrees range from associates to doctorates in various subjects.

The Board of Trustees of Mississippi Institutions of Higher Learning in cooperation with NASA created the Center for Higher Education at Stennis in May 1989.

Participating institutions include Mississippi State University, the University of Southern Mississippi, the University of New Orleans and Pearl River Community College. Nine advanced degree programs are now available at Stennis.

Fifteen to 20 resident instructors and visiting professors compose the faculty. The state college board, NASA and the Naval Oceanography command pay for the administrative costs of operating the SSC Center for Higher Education.

Participating higher education institutions, tuition and student fees provide funds for academic courses. Enrollment has grown so rapidly that Stennis education officials are seeking additional classroom and office space. Dr. Jim Meredith, director of the Center for Higher Education, said the goal is to centralize university activities in the Mississippi Technology Transfer Center.

"We're experiencing a lot of growing pains, but they're all positive," Meredith said. "We've grown to where we need a focal point for registration, offices, faculty, library and laboratory space."

"The Mississippi Technology Transfer Center was built with state funds, and we would like to dedicate a large portion of the building for use by the Center for Higher Education."

University offices are currently located in various buildings throughout the space center. Instructors hold classes in conference rooms and laboratories available at the time.

Meredith said the center conducts 17 registrations per year for college courses. He said bringing the institutions together will centralize personnel and resources.

Degree programs include marine science and oceanography, scientific computing, applied physics, electrical, industrial, mechanical and civil engineering, electronic technology, business administration and industrial engineering technology.

Taylor named to Coast Guard subcommittee

U.S. Rep. Gene Taylor is approaching his new seat assignment on the Coast Guard and Navigation Subcommittee of the Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee with a unique perspective.

Taylor, congressman of Mississippi's Fifth Congressional District, is a former Coast Guard reserve Search and Rescue boat skipper.

"Having served 13 years in the Coast Guard Reserve, I feel familiar with maritime regulatory and safety matters at issue," Taylor said. "Certainly, the new committee assignment will ensure that I have a greater say in protecting the role of the Coast Guard Station at Gulfport and at Passagoula and the vital fishing and boating interests of our district."

Stiglet attends forensic seminar

Hancock County Medical Examiner Norma Stiglet attended a six-hour course on "Natural Deaths and Suicides" at the Ramada Coliseum on Jan. 26 in Jackson.

The course was sponsored by the Southern Institute of Forensic Science, Hattiesburg, and Mississippi Mortuary, Pearl, in conjunction with the State Coroner's Association which held its biannual association conference at the Ramada Coliseum in Jackson during the weekend of Jan. 26 and 27.

Sometimes, It's Important To See The World Through A Child's Eyes.

No one knows that better than Dr. Candace Collins.

She's a Pediatric Ophthalmologist. So she specializes in the testing and treatment of children's eyes. And she does this from a child's point of view.

Dr. Collins knows that, to a child, a visit to the eye doctor can be a frightening experience. So she's done everything possible to change that.

Dr. Collins' waiting room is a playroom. And her eye exams are child's play. Because instead of looking at eye charts, your infant or toddler will watch a special puppet show. It's a process called Preferential Looking, developed specifically for pre-verbal children. To your older child, Dr. Collins' pediatric testing equipment resembles the sci-fi technology they've seen in movies. So eye exams are fun.

Your child's eyesight is a precious gift. Ensure it. With regular eye exams by Slidell's only Pediatric Ophthalmologist, Dr. Candace Collins. She could help your child see a world of difference.

Dr. Candace Collins

Board-Certified Pediatric Ophthalmologist

Here's A Special Security Blanket For Your Baby.

Dr. Marlene Buis, Neonatologist.

She's a special part of the nursery at NorthShore Regional Medical Center. And she's here to insure your peace of mind. With expert care. And extra attention. To make your baby's arrival safe and secure.

About six percent of all newborns need neonatal care. So chances are, your baby probably won't need to see Dr. Buis. But we're sure that's a chance you won't want to take.

As a Neonatologist, Dr. Buis has extensive training and experience in intensive care for newborns. As a member of our staff, she offers that care right here in our specially-equipped nursery. And our nurses provide careful, continuous monitoring, to make you feel even more secure. In fact, no other hospital on the north shore can offer your baby better care.

So when you're preparing for your baby's arrival, don't forget your security blanket. Dr. Marlene Buis. You may not need her. But isn't it nice to know she's here?

Jobs for Mississippi Graduates

Seniors at Hancock High School who plan to go directly to work after graduation may enroll in the Jobs for Mississippi Graduates Program (JMG), for assistance in locating quality jobs after graduation.

The program, which is one of six in the state, seeks to enhance employability skills.

For additional information, contact Mark France at Hancock High School at 467-2251.

Senior Citizens Center

Located in the Valena C. Jones Bldg. at 301 Old Spanish Trail in Bay St. Louis, the center serves Hancock County citizens 60 plus years of age.

Under the Hancock County Human Resource Agency, the center provides classes in ceramics, macrame', art, quilting, counted cross stitch, silk flowers, Christmas ornaments, framing, wood working and various other crafts. A morning snack is provided with donations from various clubs and businesses.

The center has a contract to provide 30 home delivered meals a day to those seniors who cannot provide for themselves, and 35 meals for those who have a need for a hot well-balanced meal daily in the cafeteria at the center.

Transportation is provided through a contract with Coast Area Transportation for most seniors in the county to bring them into the center, or to take them to the grocery, doctor, etc.

The contract with Methodist Senior Services provides two homemakers for about two hours a week to homebound, needy seniors to do light housekeeping or errands for them.

For more information, call the center at 467-9292 from 7:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

S. Mississippi AIDS Task Force

The Western Division of the South Mississippi AIDS Task Force sponsors a support group for persons with AIDS and another for their loved ones and caretakers from Hancock County and west Harrison County.

For details, call Edith Back at 467-2445 or Betty Brunner at 467-8589.

KEEPING THE NORTHSHORE INDEPENDENTLY HEALTHY

A walk in the yard brightens your day

By Dr. Milo Burnham
Horticulturist
Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service

Even though the daylight hours are getting longer, at the rate of about one minute a day, we still suffer from the short-day blues of winter.

It isn't just that the day-light hours are short. The almost persistent cloud cover of December and January have added to the dreariness.

At first glance there might not seem to be much to find pleasure in when you look at the yard where the predominant color appears to be brown.

In Mississippi Gardens

Deciduous trees and shrubs are for the most part bare of leaves. Most lawns, except those that have been seeded to cool-season grasses, are brown.

Spend a little time looking around the property on which your home sits. If you've done any work on improving the yard such as planting trees and shrubs you'll find plenty to take pleasure in.

Only at this time of year, when deciduous trees and shrubs have shed their leaves, can you see the natural line and pattern of limbs and branches.

Ginkgo trees for example display a regular pattern of branches as they grow out from the main trunk.

This pattern is almost hidden when there are leaves on the trees. Now you can see and appreciate another aspect of plant form.

When crepe myrtles are in leaf, flower or fall color you seldom notice the patterns of the exfoliating bark on the main trunks and branches. In winter these bark patterns are the highlight of this popular shrub.

In summer everything is green, and many plants are hardly noticed. A border of liriope between the lawn and shrub beds blends in when faced on both sides with green. A winter-brown lawn helps to show off borders and evergreen shrubbery.

Hollies are now at their best. Their dark green leaves stand out when there is less

The small leaves of some evergreen azaleas show a lot or red, which contrasts nicely with the larger, dark green leaves of the Southern Indian azaleas when planted together in a bed.

Promise of flowers to come can also brighten your spirits as you look around the yard. The leaves of many of the spring flowering bulbs are beginning to poke through the soil.

The single surviving, true rhododendron in my yard has about 75 fat flower buds on it and promises a mass of large, lavender blooms in a couple of months.

It's really a shame that the true rhododendrons don't do well throughout Mississippi. The native, deciduous rhododendrons (bush honeysuckles) to most southern gardeners are also loaded with flower buds and their bare branches each topped with a fat flower bud, add line and pattern to the landscape.

Nandina, a shrub without which southern landscapes can not exist, are attractive 12 months of the year. During the winter the large, draping clusters of red-orange berries against the blue-green leaves brighten even the least cared-for yards.

The leaves of some of the dwarf nandinas, now a dark maroon-red, make them as attractive and important as their larger, heavily berried relatives.

The days may be short, the sky cloudy and the weather cold and damp, but a walk around the yard should really brighten your day.

Beauty in nature the theme of poetry contest

For the second year, the Pascagoula Woman's Club is sponsoring a statewide poetry contest, May Day 1991. The theme is "Natural Beauty in the State of Mississippi."

Categories include:

—Trees, especially native trees; please honor the old oaks and the "popcorn" trees along with the traditional magnolia;

—Flowers, a challenge to say something new about the lovely flowers in this state—yes, to both magnolias and dogwood, and please don't neglect the colorful flowers of the field as possible subjects;

—Butterflies. So little is published in the way of poetry devoted to butterflies that the poets in this contest should find a pleasing editorial response when work on this topic is submitted.

One entry fee of $4 for 1-3 poems in categories 1-3; $2 entry for theme poem.

Prizes are $20, theme poem, first place, $10 second place; $10 categories 1-3 first place; $5 second place; third place and honorable mention certificates.

Entries must be postmarked by May 1. Mail entries with fees to Beverly Corben, PWC May Day 1991 Poetry Contest, 4304 O'Leary Street, Pascagoula, MS 39581.

Include a self-addressed stamped envelope for a list of winners.

Mrs. Mississippi pageant seeks entries

Applications are now being accepted for the Mrs. Mississippi USA Pageant. The Mrs. Mississippi USA Pageant is designed to showcase the achievements of married women, promote committed married relationships. Community involvement and the joys of family life.

The Mrs. Mississippi USM

Pageant will be held in Tupelo June 20-22. A portion of the proceeds will benefit Safe Inc., an emergency shelter for abused and neglected women and children.

For more information call Patricia Gentry, state director, at 841-1787. The deadline for entry is March 1.

We've Had The Foresight To Ensure Your Newborn's Eyesight.

Dr. Candace Collins, Pediatric Ophthalmologist

Look who we've added to our Neonatal staff: Dr. Candace Collins, Pediatric Ophthalmologist. She's here to check the eyes of your newborn. Because a lifetime of good sight begins with life at first sight.

Dr. Collins is the only Ophthalmologist in Slidell who specializes in the examination and treatment of children's eyes. And this expertise is vital, especially for premature babies, whose eyes are not fully developed at birth. Because undetected problems could eventually lead to blindness.

As a member of NorthShore's Neonatal staff, Dr. Collins will thoroughly examine and treat your baby's eyes as needed. She joins our staff Neonatologist, Dr. Marlene Buls, and a complete staff of pediatric nurses in our specially-equipped nursery. For the most complete newborn care on the north shore.

So if you're expecting a baby, come see all that NorthShore Regional Medical Center has to offer. You'll appreciate our foresight. And Dr. Collins will ensure your newborn's eyesight.

Baxter Hall rededicated

Ole Miss telecommunications center named for Bay native

Baxter Hall, which was dedicated in 1949 as a men's dormitory on The University of Mississippi's Oxford campus, was rededicated Feb. 13 as a telecommunications center.

Former Gov. William Winter, who was an Ole Miss student and member of the Mississippi Legislature when he spoke at the 1949 dedication, delivered an appreciation of Hermann Baxter, for whom the hall was named.

Also participating in the ceremony was John Patrick Baxter of Metairie, La., a sophomore at Ole Miss and great-nephew of Hermann Baxter, representing the Baxter family; the Rev. William R. Houck, bishop of the Catholic Diocese of Jackson; Dr. Jimmy Earl Shankle, associate vice chancellor for computing and information systems; and Chancellor R. Gerald Turner.

Baxter Hall was one of four dormitories constructed in 1948 to help provide housing for the many students enrolling after World War II. Three of the dormitories were named for young men who succeeded each other as Ole Miss student body presidents and were all killed in action in 1944: Gus Gerard, Billy Sam and Hermann Baxter.

A bust of Hermann Baxter and a commemorative plaque—donated by his brother Lionel F. Baxter of Jacksonville, Fla.—have been placed in the lobby of the rededicated and renovated hall.

Hermann Baxter, who was graduated from Ole Miss in 1943 with a bachelor of arts, was elected president of the Associated Student Body in 1942 and held the position until he left for the Army in January 1943. He was selected for membership in the Hall of Fame, Omicron Delta Kappa leadership honorary and listing in "Who's Who in American Universities."

He was president of the Heman Literary Society and cadet captain in ROTC, as well as a member of Scabbard and Blade.

Born in Jackson, Baxter came to Ole Miss after graduating from Bay High School in Bay St. Louis. He was killed in action with the 29th Infantry Division in Germany on Oct. 16, 1944, while trying to rescue a wounded comrade. He was posthumously awarded the Purple Heart and the Bronze Star.

Baxter Hall has been remodeled to accommodate telecommunication equipment and offices. The telephone switching facilities for the university's phone system have recently been installed there.

The Definity, Generic II

Switch is the latest and most sophisticated offering by AT&T. Ole Miss faculty involved in research are in "electronic mail" contact on a daily basis with other researchers throughout the world, and the equipment used for this is located in Baxter. The building also houses the administrative offices for the Telephone Exchange and Computer Center staff and maintenance personnel.

The building was renovated at a cost of $1,158,557 after being redesigned by Eley and Associates/Architects of Jackson.

Alford named Senior of Month

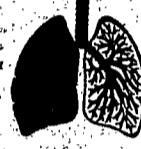

Neil Alford has been named Senior of the Month for January at St. Stanislaus High School.

This special award, which is voted on by the faculty members at St. Stanislaus, recognizes those seniors who display in a unique manner the character traits of sincerity, enthusiasm, family spirit, involvement, observance and responsibility.

Alford is an honor roll student, and he is presently in his second year at St. Stanislaus.

He is captain of the varsity football team, and he received the Mr. Rock-A-chaw Award at the annual football banquet.

He was chosen to the All-District football team this year. Alford is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Alford of New Orleans, La.

BY TRACI BON

The Bay St. Louis City Council approved a tree ordinance Wednesday night so that additional language was inserted.

Council chairman Scianna opened the debate on the ordinance by saying the council had decided to give protection to two trees, the southern magnolia and the southern maple. The original proposal, however, would have protected oaks, southern magnolias, sweetbay, sweetgum and maples that have a canopy diameter at 36 inches (ground) of eight inches or circumference of 25 inches.

Representatives of the City and Futurevision cable TV war Tuesday before a capacity audience at the Bay St. Louis Civic Center.

Local residents attended the meeting to voice opinions on the ordinance matters within hours before having a chance to speak. More than an hour of that time was censored.

Garden Arbor Day

The Bay-Waveland Arbor Day observance took place in Hancock County Walking.

The activities planned included planting a tree donated by American Waste Management, certificates of registration awarded in Hancock County.
